

Annual Chartism Day Conference, 2022

In Honour of Professor Malcolm Chase

Saturday, 19 March 2022.
University of Leeds

PROGRAMME

- 9.00–9.30 Registration
- 9.30–9.40 Welcome (Professor Andrea Major, Head of History, Leeds University)
- 9.40–9.50 Introduction and (Joan Allen and Richard C. Allen)
- 9.50–10.30 Richard C. Allen (Newcastle University / The Australian National University). 'Some Ungodly Immoral Principle in the Human Heart': Exploring Opposition to Physical Force Chartism in Wales, 1839 (Chair: Joan Allen)
- 10.30–10.45 Janette Martin (John Rylands, Manchester). A Chartist Life (1): Samuel Collins (1802–1878)
- 10.45–11.15 Break
- 11.15–12.00 Mike Sanders (University of Manchester). From 'Ludding Time' to 'The Welsh Patriots': John Stafford and the Construction of a Radical Tradition Through Song. (Chair: Richard C. Allen)
- 12.00–12.45 Joan Allen (Newcastle University). Trials and Tribulations: Political Identity, Class and Status in the Age of the Chartists, 1839–1843. (Chair: Matt Roberts)

12.45–13.00 Mark Crail, (SSLH / Chartist Ancestors). A Chartist Life (2): James Grassby (1807–18??)

13.00–14.15

Lunch

14.15–14.25 Henry Irving (Social History Society)

14.25–15.10 Vic Clarke (University of York). The 'Northern Star? From Leeds General Advertiser to National Trades' Journal, 1843–1845. (Chair: Henry Irving)

15.10–15.25 David Osmond (Independent Scholar). A Chartist Life (3): William Edwards (1796–1849)

15.25–15.55

Break

15.55–16.40 Matt Roberts (Sheffield Hallam University). 'Ever Present to the Progressive Mind: Heritage Politics and the Memory of Chartism in England and Wales, 1918–2020. (Chair: Mike Sanders)

16.40–16.50 Shirley Chase

End of Conference

Sponsors: with grateful thanks to the School of History, University of Leeds; Social History Society; and The Society for the Study of Labour History

Please note: Donations to the Brain Tumour Charity can be pledged in Malcolm's name to

<https://braintumourresearch.org>