

Programme

9.00	Registration
9.30	Introduction and welcome	Prof David Stack
	Dorothy Thompson remembered	Dr Joan Allen
9.50	An unusual Chartist: Rev Humphrey Price	Dr Len Smith
10.20	The Hawksworth family, Feargus O'Connor and the Snig's End Settlement	Stephen Hawksworth
10.50	Q&A Session
11.00	Break
11.15	Chartism, workers' bodies and disability	Dr Matthew Roberts
11.45	The real James Vernon couldn't stand up - recovering the life of a disabled poet and Chartist	Prof Simon Morgan
12.00	From 'Hen-Chartists' to 'Lady Insurrectionists': Rethinking the gender politics of Chartism	Dr Judy Cox
12.30	Mary Fildes	Prof Robert Poole
12.45	Q&A Session
13.00	Lunch Break
14.00	Three beers for the Charter	Mark Crail
14.15	Helen MacFarlane: Scottish connections	David Black
	The Translator, the Hobgoblin, and the Making of the English Manifesto	Sam Miller
14.45	Liberty, Equality and Rights in the National Complete Suffrage Union	Huw Ryochi Davies
15.15	Q&A Session
15.30	Break
15.45	John Hanson: 'a most astonishing man'	Dr John Sanders
	A Volcano by the Sea: The Life of William Woodward, 1811-1901	Dominic Barron-Carter
16.15	Some Passages in the Life of a [Tory] Radical? Disraeli and the Chartists	Prof Mike Sanders, keynote speaker
17.00	Q&A Session
17.15	Final remarks	Dr Joan Allen, Dr Richard Allen

Chartism Day 2024 marks the centenary of the great Chartist historian Dorothy Thompson.

We would like to thank our sponsors and supporters for helping to make Chartism Day 2024 possible

